

Programme

Morning

Afternoon

9:30 Registration and refreshments

Plenary session 1

Chair: Robert Clayton, Head of Practice, RPSGB

10:00 Welcome and launch of the UKMi strategy

Eilish Smith, Chair, UKMi Exec

10:20 How the media promote a public misunderstanding of science

Ben Goldacre, Author, Bad Science Column, The Guardian

10:50 What the patient needs to know and how to tell them

Mark Duman, Patient Information Forum

11:30 Impact on MI services of PCT commissioning and 'care closer to home'

Trevor Beswick, Director, South West Medicines Information Centre

12:00 Impact on MI services of foundation hospitals and PbR

Tony West, Chief Pharmacist, Guy's & St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust

12:30 Exhibition and lunch

Guided tours of the RPSGB library

Plenary session 2

Chair: Ian Simpson, Chief Executive, College of Pharmacy Practice

14:00 The new NeLM

Katie Smith, Director, East Anglia Medicines Information Centre

14:20 Information governance

David Erskine, Acting Director, London & South East Medicines Information Centre

14:50 What the RPSGB can offer MI

Austin Gibbons, Information Centre and Meghna Joshi, Practice Division, RPSGB

15:15 Refreshments

Plenary session 3

Chair: Ian Simpson, Chief Executive, College of Pharmacy Practice

15:45 Consultant pharmacist in MI – how might I get there?

Catherine Duggan, Associate Director for Clinical Pharmacy, Development and Evaluation for East & South East England

16:15 How does CPD fit in with the KSF?

Jennifer Fleck, CPD Division, RPSGB

17:00 Close